AT RARITAN BAY

We are here to serve those who protect us.

We want to help you get your mental, emotional, and physical health back so you can return to your family and career with the skills and confidence necessary to continue living a full life.

We help advocate on your behalf with your union, department, and employee assistance program if you choose to include them in your treatment. During your time in our program, you'll work closely with staff to help you get back to work as quickly and efficiently as possible.

If you do not want your department involved in your treatment, that choice will be 100% honored at all times.

Thousands of First Responders and Military Service Members just like you are fighting for their lives against addiction.

You will receive treatment specific to your needs.

Our RESCU Program includes proven clinical practices that have been adapted to meet the specific needs of current and former:

- Law enforcement personnel
- Firefighters
- Correctional officers
- Emergency medical personnel
- Service members

We also offer educational, therapeutic and support programs specifically for the families of first responders and military members, covering:

- Healthy communication
- Finding hope
- Healing together

Recovery Centers of America
AT RARITAN BAY

We are fully committed to your privacy, making it a top priority. First responders and military service members will be provided with:

- Specialty groups
- Private group therapy sessions
- Exclusive peer support groups
- Individualized treatment specific to this population

While in the program you'll also be engaged with staff members. These clinicians and peer leaders will lead educational seminars that center around topics relevant to first responders and military service members, such as:

- On-the-job triggers
- Trauma & stress
- Hero/helper mentality
- Camaraderie as a strength in addiction recovery

Our Program

Our program offers group therapy that is tailored to address the specific obstacles encountered by first responders and military service members, including:

- Work-related traumatic events
- Guilt about breaking public trust
- Depression
- Anxiety
- Drinking culture
- Difficulty asking for help
- Mistrust in mental health professionals
- Fear of losing their jobs or pay
- Fear of disappointing their co-workers or their departments

For our Former and Current Military Service Members

No matter when you served, the type of discharge received, or location of deployment, you deserve the highest quality treatment your country has to offer.

At RCA, you will be treated with dignity in an environment that honors your service.

We will provide you with the support needed to get you back to work.
